GOV. EASLEY TO ANNOUNCE CRIME COMMISSION GRANTS

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley will visit an alternative learning class and announce the Governor's Crime Commission grants at Lakeview School in Durham on Wednesday, June 6 at 11:00 a.m.

Easley will tour and participate in an alternative learning class with at-risk students. At 11:20 a.m., he will move to the cafeteria to announce the Governor's Crime Commission grants.

Directions to Lakeview School: From Raleigh, take I-40 to the Durham Freeway, then take the Durham Freeway to Roxboro Street (North). Make a right onto Old Oxford Highway and then a right onto Dearborn Drive. The school is located on the right at 3507 Dearborn Drive.

Background

During his State of the State address in February, Easley directed that funds from the Crime Commission be used to establish more alternative learning programs across the state. The grants being announced this week are part of Easley's efforts to improve educational opportunities for all students.
